Freshman Orientation

Orientation is a program designed to welcome new students to the Regis Community. Students and faculty aid in this orientation to bring awareness to the parents and students of this new atmosphere. The programs consist of a weekend in the mountains, academic testing, faculty, parent-student dinners and celebrating Mass with the new and the old.

Student Senate members, assisted by facilitators, work throughout the summer planning this important week. The Office of Student Life and faculty members also volunteer their time so that the incoming students feel at ease and get off to a great start at the Ranch.

1. Students get to know each other in the mountains. 2. Flying high in Granby. 3. Chris Dittman introduces himself to some of the new students. 4. Facilitators take time off for a quick picture. 5. Wheel barrell races start off the Super Stars.

Different people will remember different times at Regis, but one thing will always remain special to most of the students. The mass, celebrated at Regis, is truly a community event. Whether it be the Mass of the Holy Spirit, or Sunday night at 7:30, the celebrations will remain special to most of us at Regis.

Freshman

Don't let the name fool you. Frolic is a good time for everybody. This dance marks the end of new student orientation and is hosted by the Student Senate.

Jr. Class 50's Dance

The annual 50's Dance on Feb. 8th, got off to a rocky start, but for those who stuck it out, it was another good time at the Ranch. There were several great acts, combined with greased hair and bobby socks all brought back the rockin' and rollin' feeling of the 50's. 1. You mean an Editor can dance too? 2. Elvis eat your heart out! 3. We're having so much fun! 4. So you say you didn't like my act? 5. Boy would I like to. 6. Isn't Fifi a dreamboat?

THE SEARCH

I went to find the pot of gold
That's waiting where the rainbow ends.
I searched and searched and searched, and searched
And searched and searched, and then—
There it was, deep in the grass,
Under the old and twisty bough.
It's mine, it's mine at last . . .
What do I search for now?

Shel Silverstein

A Salute To

Must we always teach our children with books? Let them look at the mountains and the stars up above. Let them look at the beauty of the waters and the trees and the flowers on earth. They will then begin to think, and to think is the beginning of a real education.

WHEN

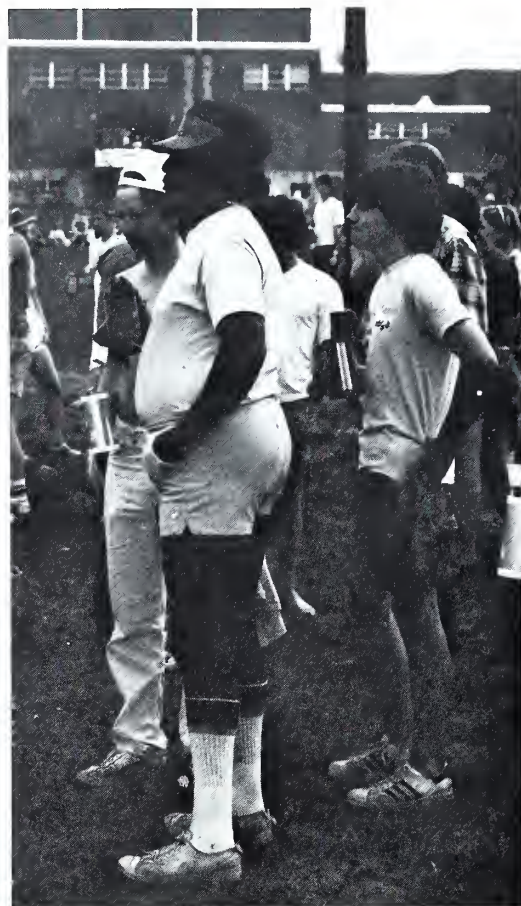

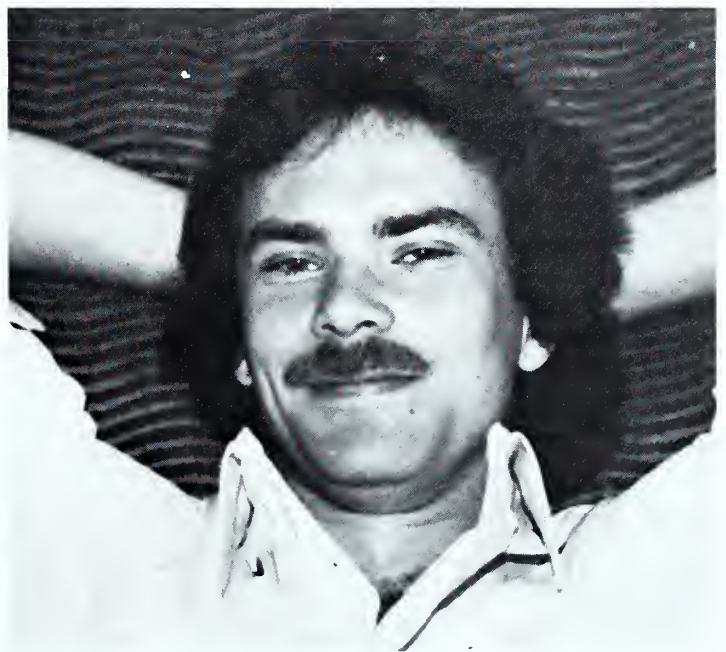

I Go My Way
All around is haste, confusing noise.
For power and wealth men stretch the day from dawn till dusk. But quietly
I go my way.
For glitter, show, to taunt the crowd,
Desire—tossed in wild dismay,
Men sell their souls. but quietly
I go my way.
The green of all the fields is mine,
The stars, the night, the wind at play,
A peaceful heart, while quietly
I go my way.

Readers,

Well, the '79-'80 Ranger Yearbook is finally finished, printed, and in your hands. We must admit, we had our doubts, but it only goes to prove that nothing is impossible. (only improbable)

Giving credit where credit is due, we would like to thank Marthe (I'm on Yearbook) Carrick, Chris (I've got more gossip) Bello, and Lori (You're nuts to be editor) Finney. Thanks to John Kelly for fetishes and fantasies, Sue Bolton, Pat Pitz and Dave Orwick for the use of some of their photographs.

Please remember that captions and pictures were used in fun, and do not take anything personally. A Yearbook is not a book of memories, you cannot capture memories in print. However, if the book managed to remind you of a special person, place or time which is special to no one but you, then the book has been worth the time and effort.

We will leave you with one final thought. "Does anyone ever appreciate life while they're living it?"

Ciao,

Peggi Steinhauer
